Baltimore Chapter

Ted Keys / Barb Summerson Undergraduate Scholarship

Scholarship Description
The Baltimore Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditor’s (IIA) Ted Keys / Barb Summerson Undergraduate Scholarships are awarded in memory of both the late Ted Keys and Barbara Summerson, long-standing members of the internal auditing profession and of the IIA. In their memory, the Baltimore Chapter of the IIA is awarding three (3) scholarships totaling $6,000 to undergraduate students who strive to uphold the key qualities cherished by Mr. Keys and Ms. Summerson and by our profession. The individual values of the scholarships to be awarded are $3,000, $2,000, and $1,000. Scholarship winners will also be awarded a one year complimentary student membership to the Baltimore Chapter of the IIA, providing you with the opportunity to attend a number of IIA sponsored training and networking events.

Eligibility Requirements
Student must be a sophomore, junior or senior attending an accredited university or college in Maryland with a declared major in accounting, finance, information systems, or other business-related field (i.e., economics), and considering a future career in auditing. The business curriculum should include organizational and/or operational management, accounting, information systems, ethics and business law. In addition to maintaining a minimum 3.0/4.0 GPA, the student should also demonstrate leadership and active involvement in extra-curricular college/university activities and/or the community.

Application Must Include
The applicant must complete the Baltimore Chapter of the Institute of Internal Auditor’s Ted Keys/Barb Summerson Undergraduate Scholarship Application (available for download at http://www.baltimoreiia.org/education) An essay of no more than one page is also required, which should include the following: 1) your career goals in the auditing profession; 2) how you are pursuing or possess qualities valued by our profession; and 3) a description of yourself that you believe makes you a qualified candidate for this scholarship. Student must also send an official college/university transcript.
